

Hi there!

How are you all, big boys and girls? Hope everything is OK. This is going to be our fifth week at home. I'm sure you know this web page:

<https://www.rtve.es/infantil/series/educan-9-10-anos/>

And this is the video I want you to watch:

<https://www.rtve.es/infantil/serie/educan-9-10-anos/video/idiomas-schools-in-the-uk-and-the-usa/5541823/>

Well, and this is my request:

1. Try to surf the net by yourself and find the video. No problem if you need help. This new situation is a bit difficult for all of us.
2. Listen to the video without the text. You've got the transcription at the end of this document.
3. And now listen to the video and read the text. Practice reading the text several times.
4. If you can, record your voice while reading the text aloud. If not, read it to someone in your family! Sure they appreciate your effort.
5. What about writing? Try to answer the last question in the text: What's your school like? And write a short composition and send it to me (turodeguiera.4a@gmail.com turodeguiera.4b@gmail.com)

Oh, I nearly forget it: Telling the time in English is a bit difficult. Here you've got a video and an online activity to be aware of it.

Telling the time video

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fq2tRfHu5s8>

The screenshot shows a Firefox browser window displaying a YouTube video. The video player is the central focus, showing a green clock face with the time 2:00. Text on the screen reads "TELLING THE TIME", "What time is it?", "2:00", "It's two o'clock", and "Son las dos en punto". The video is from the channel "Decir la Hora Inglés" and has 1,877,898 views. The right sidebar shows recommended videos related to learning English and telling the time.

Game online

<http://www.koalertext.com/public/index.php/unitsv2/737>

And if you want to learn more and improve your English, remember to visit:

<http://turodeguiera.cat/bloc/joemquedoacasa-orientacions-i-recursos/>

I've put into words the text recorded, just to help you. Remember to use the Google Translator!

A bucket full of hugs and kisses for you all!

Elisabeth

Video text transcription

SCHOOLS IN THE UK (United Kingdom) AND THE US (United States of America)

Do you like school? Do you wear a school uniform? What time does your school start? In the UK children wear an uniform. At this primary school the uniform is a blue jumper, a white shirt and a grey skirt or grey trousers.

What are they studying? These children often ₁ do maths but they do other ₂ subjects too like History, Geography, Science and ICT ₃

In the UK school usually ₄ starts at nine o'clock and it finishes at three o'clock, a quarter past three or half past three.

Some schools have an outdoor lesson once a week this is called forest school. These children are looking at a leaf with their teacher.

In the US children don't go to primary school. They go to elementary school. School usually starts at half past eight and finishes at three o'clock or half past three.

In the US school children don't always ₅ wear an uniform but most ₆ children go to school in a yellow school bus like this one!

What's your school like?

Glossary

1.- often: sovint

2.- other: altres

3.- ICT: Information and Communication Technologies. TIC o classe d'Informàtica.

4.- usually: habitualment

5.- always: sempre

6.- most: la majoria